This decision including any finding of facts, impairment and sanction is an appealable decision under our rules. Therefore, this decision will not take effect until 10 July 2023 or, if an appeal is lodged, once that appeal has been concluded. However, the interim conditions set out in the decision take effect immediately and will lapse when the decision takes effect or once any appeal is concluded.

1. You must:

- tell the GPhC before you take on any position for which you must be registered with the GPhC
- give the GPhC details of the role and the hours you will work each week
- give the GPhC the contact details of your employer

2. You must tell the following people in writing about the restrictions imposed on your pharmacy practice, if you are doing any paid or unpaid work for which you must be registered with the GPhC. You should do this within two weeks of the date this order takes effect:

- all employers or contractors
- agents acting on behalf of employers and locum agencies
- superintendent pharmacists
- responsible pharmacists
- line managers
- workplace supervisors
- accountable officers for controlled drugs.

If you are applying for work, you must tell any prospective employer about the restrictions imposed on your pharmacy practice when you apply.

3. You must tell the GPhC if you apply for work as a pharmacist or pharmacy technician outside Great Britain.
